

Ms. Imelda Dunlop
Executive Director
Pearl Initiative
United Arab Emirates

Imelda Dunlop is the Executive Director of the Pearl Initiative, the leading independent, not-for-profit, by-business for-business, institution working to influence and improve corporate accountability and transparency in the Arab world.

Based in Dubai since 2002, Imelda has founded a number of entrepreneurial ventures and been a consultant specialising in regional strategy and corporate responsibility. She authored the Prince of Wales International Business Leaders Forum (IBLF) publication 'Business and Youth in the Arab World' – a sourcebook of good practices for business engagement in youth employment, skills development and entrepreneurship.

Imelda is a former Director of the World Economic Forum in Geneva, Switzerland, where she worked with business executives to progress issues of social importance and business relevance with government, civil society and academia. She also spent much of her career at Monitor Company, a leading global corporate strategy consulting firm.

Imelda's first degree is a BSc in Chemical Engineering from Birmingham University in the UK. She has a Masters in Business Administration (MBA) from INSEAD in France.